Private Photography Requirements:

$1,000/Photographer/10 Clients the start of the event. No exceptions

Please email completed form to stephanie@splitrockjumpingtour.com with the Subject Photography form. Once form is received, an invoice will be sent via email.

A complete list of clients you will be shooting MUST be sent to stephanie@splitrockjumpingtour.com by the Monday before each show

Photographers can shoot current clients ONLY. No Solicitation of services at the event.

Clients must be listed out with either individual rider name(s) OR in the case whereof the photographer possesses farm(s) and/or brand(s) as one "client," please abide by the guidelines below:

- Clarification must be made as to the type of client (barn, brand, etc.)
- Designation must be made for the person(s) receiving photo access, which must be the individual(s) representing the client and not those that are only just associated (i.e. students or sponsored riders)

Private Photographers are not permitted to enter the show arena, with the exception of designated SRJT photographers

- Photos posted by those outside of those individual(s) who represent the client, must ONLY be made available by reposting from social media and/or any corresponding website usage
- Any associated person(s) that wishes to gain their own access to photo(s), must be listed as a separate client (i.e. any students of a barn or riders of a brand wanting private photography services/access will count separately towards the 10 listed client names)
- A full list of associated riders you plan to photograph must accompany within the "client" (for example: ambassador/ sponsored riders of a brand; trainer(s) and rider(s) within a barn)

For any questions or clarification on these guidelines, please contact Stephanie Rowney (941) 735 3480. Any photographer found to be providing photos outside of the guidelines set forth above, will be removed from the event and have their photo pass privileges revoked for the remainder of the 2023 Split Rock Jumping Tour
